

"The people in England have voted to leave the European Union, with the flood of unwanted immigrants as the main reason to exit. This is causing turmoil for the financial system, and indeed has caused the markets to temporarily drop.

Bad guys are trying to exploit this, and will try to trick you with alarming news about your 401K or other investments. Don't fall for it. Any time a major event hits the press, lowlifes will try to make you click on shocking news. Remember: Think Before You Click!"
